

08/18/12 - Old Home Day Celebration Ends Tomorrow with Concert

The finishing touch to the annual Old Home Day celebration in Londonderry will be held tomorrow, Sunday, August 19, 2012, on the Town Common. The Contemporary Christian Concert has ended the five day celebration for many years and features a community church service and free picnic for people of all faiths. The church service will begin at 11 AM and will be followed by a picnic and choir concert. Grab your blankets, chairs and families and join several of Londonderry's churches on the Common for this fun, free event!

Participating churches this year include the Londonderry United Methodist Church, Orchard Christian Fellowship, Church of the King, Zion Christian Fellowship, Londonderry Christian Church, and Journey Church of the Nazarene.
